The D.I.V.A. Zone™ SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The D.I.V.A. Zone™ Magazine is dedicated to the encouragement, education and uplifting of women, as well as the general consumer. Although, the Magazine is interested in giving the writer a platform, as well as exposure, the author will not be compensated for his/her work. The D.I.V.A. Zone™ seeks writers, poets and essayists. All works should be tasteful, truthful in nature, and suitable for the general public. Any submitted work that contains strong language or sexual content will not be considered. Remember, our mission is to heal and remain true to God's Word.

In order to allow adequate time for the submissions to be prepared, only three (3) works, from each author, will be accepted for consideration, per issue. Emphasis should always be on content and not form. Our Editorial staff will make the appropriate aesthetic changes, if necessary, as well as provide additional proofing. However, please spell-check your work prior to submitting it.

The D.I.V.A. Zone™ Magazine is copyrighted. Submitted work remains the property of the creator and is self-copyrighted. While the work remains the property of the writer, the design and layout of the Magazine are the property of The D.I.V.A. Zone™, including any graphics, etc., created specifically for the work submitted.

Please make sure the following are evident: Title of work, Type of work (i.e., poetry, essay, etc.), Name of author, Copyright date, or Date of creation. Any essays or short stories submitted should be no more than 200 words. Please submit written work as a Microsoft Word attachment.

Also, please provide a brief biographical sketch, as well as a photo, to be included with the submission. The photo is optional, but if you decide to submit, via e-mail, it must be saved in jpeg.

You can either e-mail your submission(s), via editors@divazonemagazine.com.

Please do not send original manuscripts, as they cannot be returned.

We look forward to your submissions!
